Definitions

How does the firm protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does the firm collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account
- Enter into an investment advisory account
- Apply for insurance
- Tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio - Seek advice about your investments

We also collect your personal information from others such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes
- information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- We do not share with our affiliates

Non-affiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- We do not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you:

- We do not jointly market
